

I feel that satellite radio should be able to broadcast anything that a regular radio station can and that the government should not interfere with them.

thank you
robert snyder